

TIFFIN TRIBUNE.

R. L. MCKEE, & BAILEY,
EDITORS -- AND PROPRIETORS.
TIFFIN, FRIDAY, OCT. 26, 1858.

Democratic "Flunkies."

A Jenkins has recently been regaling the public, through the columns of a New York Observer with an account of his visit he paid to Mr. Buchanan at Wheatland. That such stuff as it contains should find a place in a journal making more than ordinary pretensions to gravity, is of itself sufficient to suggest the inquiry "what are we coming to?" The President is treated as an exact counterpart of European sovereigns, and the greatest surprises expressed at his not imitating them. After a long account of the fact that he actually wrapped at the door of "old Buck's" mansion, was admitted and invited to take seat, the writer goes on to say:

"Nothing about this truly great man is more wonderful than the ease and simplicity of his manners in private life. He throws off all reserve and makes his visitor feel quite at home in his presence. While we sat there, a rough, laboring man walked in without a coat, and saluted the President, 'Good morning, Sir,' and handed him some newspapers. The 'rich brogues' betrayed the man's nationality. Mr. B. replied, with a calm smile, 'Thank you,' took the papers and the man left."

Only think of a poor Irish laborer, in his shirt sleeves, approaching the President in his country house, handing him a bundle of newspapers, and saying "good morning, sir!" and more wonderful still, think of the President saying, "thank you," and "smiling calmly." The writer goes on to chronicle the astounding circumstance, that the same great man "walked two miles to church. His feet were covered with dust, and the perspiration stood on his forehead." What presumptuous audacity the duat had in getting on the feet of our chief magistrate, and the perspiration in standing on his forehead!

It would not be surprising to learn of the issue of a daily circular, announcing that "Mr. Buchanan this morning took a walk over the grounds of the White House five minutes before breakfast, in company with Col. Titus and English Bill; that he took his usual nap, and, to the surprise of his attendants, forgot to snore;" that "he wrote a letter, and used an adhesive envelope, supplying the moisture thereto by an application of his tongue," &c. An approach to this is being weekly made by strutting news-mongers, whose reports find admission to the columns of papers that ought to offer better material to their readers. It serves only to make laughing stock of both the President and the writer; and what is most of all it exhibits as vast an amount of flunkiesm, snobbishness and folly as ever appeared in any European court circular. In monarchial countries royalty confers official as well as social superiority, whilst the Presidency of the United States confers superiority alone; and in the exercise of his functions the President is the first man in the Union, but as James Buchanan at Wheatland he can lay claim to nothing more than any other ordinary man.

The Germans—A Card.

The last Advertiser contains a card from the leading Germans of the county, in justification of their course at the recent election and setting forth their grievances generally. It is an able, well written and truthful document and breathes a spirit of independence, which we are glad to see, even in Democrats. The Germans of this county have been shamefully misused by the self-styled leaders of the democratic party and it is high time they were making a "declaration of their independence." They, as a class, have rights that should be respected and it is but fair, inasmuch as they have become adopted citizens, that they should share the honors as well as the duties. The Democrats are the friends of the foreigner, only so far as their votes are concerned. They merely want to use them to subserve their own selfish purposes. The fact that good honest Germans are kicked aside to give place to Know Nothings shows how much they love the foreigners. There is no hope of reform in the democratic party of this county. It is controlled by a few, who are bound to rule or ruin. The Germans should leave the sinking ship and take care of themselves.

Great Republican Gains—The Next House of Representatives.

The following is the result of the election for members of the present United States House of Representatives from the State which held their elections on Tuesday, October 12th. We also give the classifications for 1858:

	1858.	1856.
Penn. - - 2	3	10
Opp. Dem. - - 3	10	15
Ohio - - 16	6	12
Ind. - - 8	3	8
Iowa - - 2	0	2
- - - - -	47	29
- - - - -	12	30

Of the Opposition Congressmen in Pennsylvania, four are anti Leecompton Democrats, and in Indiana, one.

In the presents House of Representatives, as elected, the Democratic majority over the combined Opposition was twenty two.

Now's the time to subscribe for the Tribune.

Gov. Willard of Indiana has called another session of the Legislature.

The majority on the Republican side ticket, in Ohio, will average about $1,000. Thrall runs the highest of any on the tickets.

Will the Advertiser tell us whether it sympathises with Buchanan or Douglass, in their present controversy.—The people want to know.

Hennett of the N. Y. Herald concedes that the Republicans will carry the state, at the November election, and gain several Congressmen.

Only two Administration men are elected to Congress from Pennsylvania and the seat of one of these, (Florence,) will be contested. So much for Buchanan's foolish and extravagant course.

W. H. P. Denny, Esq., has taken charge of the Dayton Gazette. He has been for many years connected with the Lebanon Star. We wish him great success in his new enterprise.

Huron County.—Mr. Jacob Prosser, of Townsend, a few mornings since, discovered a waif, in the form of a young boy, on his doorstep. With it were deposited $30 in gold, and some other necessaries.

The notorious O. B. Matteson, of corruption fame, has at last found his level. He has turned Locofoco Democrat, and is running for Congress against the regular Republican nominee of his old district. "Good riddance," &c.

Townsend, the captain of the slave brig Echo, has had a change of venue in his case. It is transferred from Boston to the U. S. District Court in Florida, where the Dred Scott doctrine is received as orthodox. It was feared the trial of the case in Boston would result in his conviction, hence the transfer to a locality where slaves are not regarded as men.

Mechanics for Sale.
Such is the heading of the following advertisement in a Mobile paper:

One middle aged man, good rough carpenter, excellent character, sound and healthy—fully warranted; also, his wife, 35 years, with their boy child, aged 4 years, with a prospect of increase—the woman is a field hand and house woman; all right.

Also, a No. 1 Negro Fellow, 24 years of age, who is a No. 1 Plasterer—hires for $52 a month.

Terms cash, or good paper on short time. Apply to H. N. Gould, 55 Royal-st., opposite Court House.

The Democracy advocate the Dred Scott opinion, which extends and establishes slavery in all the territory of the United States. And the Damoocracy of Ohio have made this opinion a plank in their State platform, so that under their policy, in the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska and in all the region west, slaveholders may advertise "Mechanics for sale."

The Union to be Preserved only by the Revival of the Slave Trade.
The following paragraph is from an article in last number of DeBow's Review in favor of the re-opening of the African Slave Trade:

If the Union be desirable, (and with a rigid regard of mutual rights by the North and South, no one will deny its inestimable value,) it is earnestly considered that the most effectual means of giving it perpetuity will be realized in the opening of the slave trade, and the introduction of our peculiar institution into the Western States and Territories. By this we will construct a homogeneous system of labor, and through this bond of sympathy will be re-established that community of sentiment, a d the old entente cordiale, without which the Constitution is a rope of sand, and the Union a shallow mockery."

Florence's Seat to be Contested.
The Philadelphia journals state that the seat of Thomas A. Florence, who claims to have received a few hundred plurality in the Third District of Pennsylvania, by the colonization of a thousand or two of voters at the Navy Yard, is to be contested. From the particulars of this case, as we have already published them, it is manifest that he has no right to a seat in Congress, by virtue of such an election. Such a palpable fraud, of which the National Executive appears to have been an original party, as he should to the frauds in Kansas after the fact, should not go unrebuked.—Our Gov.
